MANAGING EDITOR'S NOTE

Another edition of the Law Review is available for your reading pleasure. We have had a very active past quarter considering the volume of decisions issued by all levels of the New Jersey Superior Court and Supreme Court. Additionally, there have been some interesting decisions rendered by the Federal District Court commenting in various ways on local municipal governance in New Jersey. As always we try our best to achieve the dual goal of being both comprehensive and brief with case summaries, and I believe our editors have met that challenge. Upon reading these, I hope you feel the same way.

We want to welcome a new editor, Jameson Van Eck, who will be assisting primarily in two areas. Jameson is preparing the New Jersey Supreme Court Cases to Watch section which we are reinstating with this edition and handling the second level editing with Samantha Castrelos. They are assisted with special oversight and input from Tom Dunn. He just can't quit us.

The Institute will be presenting several seminars, ranging from Ethics to Labor to OPRA and more, at the League of Municipalities Convention on November 16th and 17th. If you are joining us in Atlantic City, I strongly encourage you to attend all or any of these high quality and informative sessions. Among the most important are the annual rundown of the most consequential legal decision in the municipal law area. Our own Steve Goodell and Trishka Cecil do an excellent good of synthesizing these down into manageable chunks of wisdom. Right afterwards, we have the annual meeting of the Institute and then our awards reception (with lamb chops galore for the carnivore in you). This is a great opportunity to share a fun and relaxed time with colleagues and complain about clients!

We would welcome any articles concerning the legal issues effecting local governments. Contact us about it by email to joe@friendwenzel.com.
